Message from the Churchwardens

What wonderful weather we've been enjoying and what a beautiful place we live in! Both Bembridge and the Isle of Wight are full of examples of God's amazing creation. Hopefully everyone is now aware that we recently adopted Pop's Wood as a new mission partner. Phillip Sard, a member of our congregation, is one of the people working to develop small nature reserves across the island, including the one in Love Lane, where they are hoping to develop a new outdoor learning provision for young people to engage with. We're waiting to see how we might be able to help and it ties in really well with our Eco Church ethos. You'll know that Sally and Zoe have already got us to Silver standard, but much more will be needed if we're to attain our Gold standard. Please pray for Pop's Wood and our Eco church vision and if you want to get involved practically, speak with Phillip, Sally or Zoe to find out more. With Love from Toni and Andrew.

Diary update

Trinity Church Mice

Torticus, the Tortoise paid us a visit this week as he had heard that the Mousehole Sport's Day had a Hare and the Tortoise theme. We listened to the story of the boastful Hare and the steady Tortoise and then enjoyed lots of little races. The Mice went home with wooden medals, and we all collapsed in a heap! In the afternoon, Mrs King and the Reception class joined us in the garden, and we did the Hare and the Tortoise races all over again! The Mousehole will be closed next week as most of our team are popping off on holiday. We wish them all a restful break. Love Sally, Caroline, and the Church Mice team.

Good Book Club

The Good Book Club are now taking a two-week break. We will meet again on Friday 11 July. Love Sally and Caroline.

Church Worship

As mentioned at our Annual Church Meeting, our PCC has a vision to develop and transform our worship life together. To that end, we are exploring the possibility of appointing a Musical Worship Leader—someone who can inspire and lead us in both traditional and contemporary styles, engaging all ages: children, youth, and adults alike. At the back of church, you'll find a background paper and a role description. Please do take a copy, pray about it, and share your thoughts with Steve, Clare, Toni Swann, Geoff Green, Tim Woodward, Tracey Vallance, or Christine Behan. This is a significant step of faith for our church, and it's vital that we move forward united in heart and mind. Steve
