Message from the Churchwardens

It's been another beautiful week in Bembridge and the village is full of holiday-makers. It is always so encouraging to meet with returning visitors to our church, who often stop to share coffee after the service and update us on their news. Please do encourage any visitors you meet to come and join our fellowship on a Sunday morning.

The tower stonework repair is now nearing completion. Next work will involve repair to the roof of the boiler room. There is also some stonework repair planned in the porch and inside the church in the coming days, so please take care when accessing the church when work is taking place. This week an inspirational workshop was held for churchwardens at St Helens Church on churchyard management. The development of a churchyard management plan is an important part of our journey of deepening our commitment to our eco church agenda. The workshop was led by representatives from a wonderful organisation "Caring for God's Green Acre". If you get a chance, do pay a visit to St Helen's Church to see how their beautiful churchyard is so lovingly and sensitively maintained. Next week sees the end of term at the primary school and we'll be welcoming the Year 6's and their parents for a Leavers' service on Friday. We look forward to giving them their books – "How Great is Our God" - which have been paid for with contributions from many of our congregation - thank you. With love from Andrew & Toni

Thank you to everyone who has already supported our gifts to the Year 6 Leavers from our Primary School. The children will each receive the book How Great is our God by Louie Giglio, at the Leavers Service in Holy Trinity, generously gifted by members of our church family. If you would still like to make a gift this year, every £10 will help to buy the book for one of the 28 pupils, please email Toni churchwardens@bembridgeholyltrinity.org.uk. You can donate online or pop your gift in an envelope marked Leaver's gift and bring it to church on Sunday. Thank you for your generosity. Sally and Toni
