Message from the Churchwardens

With the Summer holidays now in full swing we welcome visitors to our community and to our church. We hope they find this to be a haven of peace and spiritual renewal in our busy and troubled world. We encourage everyone to take a moment to reflect on the words “holy-days” and “re-creation”. This week we express our thanks to our talented team of flower arrangers who come in every week to make sure that our sanctuary has a pedestal of fresh flowers. This has been no small task over the past few weeks with the hot weather. Please take a moment to appreciate the work of these clever people who regularly give their talents and time, as well as donating the flowers. Please note that the Eco Bees are having a Summer break, so won't be meeting this Sunday (3rd August). Have a look at their board if you want inspiration for some Eco-friendly Summer activities. With love from Toni and Andrew
