Message from the Churchwardens

What a wonderful Pentecost and Bank Holiday weekend we witnessed. The Holy Spirit was very much with us throughout in the glorious spring sunshine, and it was, as always, a very special time in the life of our church community. It was so good to see our volunteers and support teams in action throughout the Flower Festival and the Bank Holiday Street Fair activities in the Cloisters. Many congratulations to our talented flower display team on their imaginative interpretations of this year's nautical theme. The many donations to the Friends of Holy Trinity, whose funds are dedicated to the upkeep and enhancement of our church, were greatly appreciated. Our church stewarding team welcomed over 700 visitors over the weekend. The Bank Holiday tea and cake event in the Cloisters garden attracted hundreds more. Many thanks to all who contributed cakes, flowers, energy and time to presenting our church community at its very best. On Sunday we will be well represented at the induction of the new Arch Deacon of the Isle of Wight at Portsmouth Cathedral. We send him our best wishes as he starts his ministry, and we look forward to welcoming the Venerable Barry Dugmore to Holy Trinity in the near future. (Please see note below). With love and blessings for the week ahead, Andrew and Toni.

Installation of our new Arch Deacon

The on island Installation service to welcome our new Arch Deacon will take place at Newport Minster on Sunday 28th June at 5.00pm. Members of our congregation are cordially invited to attend. To provide the organisers with an idea of numbers, those planning to attend are asked to add their names to the sign-up sheet at the back of the church, or
