Pew News & Events

The Season of Mellow Fruitfulness

Ride and Stride Saturday was a beautiful day for a bike ride! Our intrepid cyclists Jacob, Cancan and Crispin managed to visit every church on the Isle of Wight! Thank you to everyone who supported their enormous achievement and to all who warmly welcomed visitors to Holy Trinity throughout the day. This Sunday we have a Communion Service and Alpha again on Thursday evening. Thank you for your continued support, love Sally and Caroline

Prisons Week – 10th-16th October

This is the week we are asked to pray especially for those who live and work in prisons and their families as well as those who are victims of crime and the catastrophic and far reaching effects. If you would like to take part in the prayer week there is a prayer sheet that can be down loaded from the Prison Week website; <https://prisonsweek.org/> or collect a copy from back of church.

Prison Visitors

Anyone who feels they may have a discernment toward serving God through (pastoral) ministry to those in prison and has a couple of hours free each month might be interested in volunteering to become an Official Prison Visitor. This is a scheme run by the National Association of Prison Visitors and seeks to provide visitors for those prisoners who would not otherwise receive visits. It is so important for prisoners to have contact with the 'outside' world to help with their rehabilitation and prepare them for when they leave prison. Contact Judith.Swaine@justice.gov.uk or speak to Margaret for further information.

Diary update

Trinity Church Mice

What a lovely Mousehole day! It was wonderful to see all the Little Mice and Tiny Mice scampering in for lots of fun and games. God blessed us with a beautiful sunny day, and it was lovely to welcome new friends and to see everyone having a happy time together. We held on to our Prayer rope and walked it into church for some joyful songs of praise. Next week we will be celebrating Harvest from the garden and making lavender bags!

Coffee in the Cloisters – on Tuesdays

All welcome, no booking required – there is plenty of space inside and out! Meet up with friends and have a chat! The Acoustic Sound Panels have been fitted to improve the acoustics in the hall. Come along and see the difference they make! Wearing masks and distancing is your decision, whilst being sensitive to the concerns of others. See you on Tuesday 10.00 – 12.00. Barbara.

Friends of Holy Trinity - AGM

The Annual General Meeting will be held in the Cloisters on Friday, 22nd October at 6.00pm.

Thinking of you

Barbara Arthure and the Pastoral team are keeping their ears to the ground, trying to ensure "We are Thinking of you" cards are being sent to the poorly people in our community. Please tell us if you know of anyone who is facing surgery, in recovery or just generally feeling under the weather, so that Barbara can pop to the post box. 872902

Beach Baptisms

1pm, Sunday 19th September Steve & Heath will be undertaking baptisms in the sea at St Helens beach, followed by a BBQ. This is a great opportunity to come along and show your support for these new Christians and to hear their testimony about how they came to know Jesus and, of course, all are welcome to the BBQ afterwards. Please pray over the coming days for them by name: Ady Hodgkinson, Alex Byerley, Liz Christopher & Talitha Monaghan, Charly Callaghan & Larry Welling.

'The Prayer of the Heart'. A time to leave behind the worries of the day, relax and centre ourselves in His peace. Good for body and soul! Certainly there will be some silence and we will use Scripture to guide us. Weekly at the back of Holy Trinity. About 30minutes. Just turn up. All welcome. Jackie.
